Bonnet Design

Please complete your proposed design on the outline provided overleaf. Submitted artwork must be no larger than A4. Designs will not be returned. Please remember to keep copies of your application form and all associated materials for your reference.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The project is open to all artists, amateur or professional with the ability to successfully complete their design.
- You may submit up to two applications. Any subsequent designs thereafter will not be considered. Designs will not be returned.
- To enter, the work must be received by Roundabout the closing date of Sunday 15th March at 5pm by email or post. All entries must be accompanied by a completed submission form.
- All terms and conditions in this application form a part of the agreement between you and Roundabout in connection with Bangers and Cash.
- By submitting your design and submission form you are agreeing to be bound by all terms and conditions in this document.
- You must be the sole author and owner of all intellectual property rights of the design entered, or if the design/s is/are not your own in full, you must have permission in writing from the copyright owner/s to use his/her work. Roundabout does not accept liability in the publication of any reproduced art.
- The design must represent a piece of work that you have the ability to reproduce on the car bonnet, with respect to reasonable adjustments due to bonnet shape variation.
- You consent to the use of your design, name and photograph in any promotional material and social media carried out by Roundabout and associated media without any further compensation.
- Your design(s) will be reviewed and shortlisted by Roundabout, Becks & Co, Goo Design and the Bangers and Cash Arts Co-ordinator prior to being shown to the Teams..
- Designs will be commissioned following selection by the Teams. This decision on all matters relating to the designs selected to be used is final.
- Teams select the design towards the end of May. You will be contacted after this has taken place if you are successful. Due to volume of anticipated design submissions, we regret that we may be unable to contact unsuccessful applicants.
- Upon commissioning, Roundabout will provide the bonnet varnish at no charge to you.
- Cost of materials to complete your design is your responsibility with the exception of varnish.
- You must provide appropriate brushes to apply the varnish. Finished work will need to be signed off with the Arts Coordinator prior to varnishing.
- You will provide the materials necessary to produce your artwork on the bonnet. Roundabout is not responsible for the colour of the car; the sponsors choose their car independently so a base coat of primer may be necessary to fulfil your design.
- You must not make any additions or modifications to the vehicle.
- Roundabout reserve the right to withhold any fee payable to you in connection with Bangers and Cash if, in its sole opinion, the quality of the finished work provided falls below that which can be reasonably be expected for public display or is substantially different from the design you submitted.
- The car bonnet and original artwork remains at all times the property of Bangers and Cash, until it is auctioned and paid for in full.
- If successful, you the artist are solely responsible for your safety and wellbeing whilst undertaking the production of your design and must ensure that you adhere to any Health & Safety requirements requested by sponsor company/vehicle host.
- All successful applicants under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult at all times during the production of the design onto the vehicle.
- Roundabout will award commissioned artists with an honorarium of £550. This will be paid on completion of the finished artwork, subject to sign off, and all relevant paperwork.
- Payment will be paid within 28 working days of receipt of invoice.
- Following the Bangers and Cash rally, the bonnet will be auctioned to raise money for Roundabout. Artists may be invited to restore reasonable 'wear and tear'/damages to the design on the bonnet. This will be in October 2020. Artists will be contacted if this is necessary.
- By submitting your design for consideration and selection for use by Bangers and Cash, and for eligibility for payment of the honorarium, you acknowledge that you have all required rights and consents to submit the design and you allow Roundabout to use the design in connection with Bangers and Cash in the interest of the project. You also agree to the assignment of all intellectual property rights you hold in connection with the design and the car itself to Roundabout and acknowledge that Roundabout have full right and title to the design you produce in connection with Bangers and Cash

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By signing this application, I agree to all of the terms and conditions above. I certify that all statements made in this application are true to the best of my knowledge.
